

VIRGINIA NEWS

William Jennings Bryan will visit Bristol May 25, and deliver an address upon the European war and its effects upon America and the world as a whole.

The late George Cameron, of Mt. Erin Towers, Petersburg, U. S. A., whose will has just been probated in London, left property in Great Britain valued at $1,622,070.

Ruben Wyatt, died near Hilton, Scott county, Sunday at the age of 108 years. Court records show that his first marriage occurred 92 years ago, when he was 16. His entire life was spent in Scott county.

James, little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Tyree Dillard, who was injured ten days ago by a swing on one of the public play grounds of Lynchburg died on Sunday. The child sustained a fractured skull.

The annual convention of the Virginia Public Health Association opened last night at Newport News, with fifty delegates in attendance. They were welcomed to the city by Mayor B. B. Semmes, John I. Vinney, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who was to have made the welcoming address, was unable to be present.

The Curtis flying boat H-10 left Baltimore with five passengers at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning to return to Newport News. The aircraft made the distance of 173 miles in 2 hours and 11 minutes, and at times attained the speed of 106 miles an hour. From Newport News it left immediately for Washington. The trip to Baltimore from Newport News was made in three hours and three minutes on Saturday. The highest altitude attained on the trip to Baltimore was 2,100 feet.

Beginning yesterday morning Harrisonburg became a city instead of a town. Judge T. N. Haas signed the court orders Saturday night. A recent special census showed that Harrisonburg had a population of 5,280 or 280 more than the law requires of a city of the second class. No separate court will be formed and the present officials will continue to serve. It is claimed that under the city form of government Harrisonburg will save about $6,000 a year, which will help make up the loss of saloon toe, right there, don't be afraid, that's it—feel how smooth the skin is? Well, that's where the corn was. Well, that beats all! That's the way "Gets-It" works on all corns, every corn every time. It's the new, simple way of curing corns. You'll say goodbye to all foolish contractions like bandaging, sticky tape, plaster, toe-eating salves, and grave-diggers such as knives, razors and scissors. "Gets-It" stops pain, Applied in 2 seconds. Never fails. Nothing to stick to, hurt or press on the corn.

"WELL I SHOULD SAY 'GETS-IT' DOES WORK"

licenses when the Statewide Prohibition law puts the five saloons out of business on November 1.

Following an exhaustive and prolonged appeal from clergymen and laymen, representatives of civic associations and women who are, in one form or another, identified with the social life of Richmond, the Council Ordinance Committee last night disposed effectually of the ordinance which would make the Superintendent of Schools censor of motion pictures by not taking it up, and tabled, for consideration at its next meeting a proposed ordinance which would provide for the appointment of three residents of Richmond as a censorship board, the power of appointment of members of this board to be vested in the judge of the Hustings Court.

STORM DAMAGING AND FATAL
Violent Winds Cause One Death and Wrecked Structures.

Minneapolis, May 9.—A violent wind-storm, which swept Minnesota and parts of North Dakota, and western Wisconsin, Sunday night, caused considerable property damage, according to reports today.

At Two Harbors, Minn., a man was killed by lightning. At Crookston, Minn., a tabernacle was unroofed during services, but no person was hurt. The roof of the grandstand at La Crosse, Wis., baseball park was lifted by the wind and dropped on a street car, slightly injuring several passengers. Wire communication was interrupted throughout the Northwest.

WHOOPIING COUGH

One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. S. W. McClellan, Blandon Springs, Ala., writes "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any baby could have it. I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well." Obtainable everywhere.

Present, Hon Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Ella L. Dante, vs. William H. Dante. IN CHANCERY. Upon application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, and that the defendant is not a resident of the State of Virginia, the Court doth on this 8th day of May, 1916, grant the following Order of Publication.

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree for an absolute divorce for the complainant, Ella L. Dante, from the defendant, William H. Dante, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment, without cause or excuse, for a period of more than three years prior to the institution of this suit.

An affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, William H. Dante, is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear in the Clerk's Office of the said Court within fifteen days after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit.

That a copy of this Order of Publication be inserted once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia.

That a copy be posted at the front door of the Courthouse on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered.

And that a copy of this Order of Publication be mailed by registered mail, by the Clerk of this Court, addressed to the said non-resident defendant at No. 210, 9th street, S. E. Washington, D. C., his last known place of abode.
